

Describe a meal that would represent the Columbian Exchange. What dishes would be served to incorporate or represent the different plants and animals? How would those dishes be served—what could be done, apart from the food itself, to reference what happened in the Columbian Exchange?

Discuss in table groups and write your own, individual answers in your Class Notebooks on page _____.

