

Mark T for True, F for False, and if false, use the line below to re-write the sentence to make it true.

_____ 1. TRUE or FALSE: You only have to cite your source for direct, word-for-word quotations. If you paraphrase, you do not have to cite the source.

_____ 2. TRUE or FALSE: According to the MLA rules for citing a source, you should put the URL in the parentheses at the end of the sentence where you use the information.

_____ 3. TRUE or FALSE: You can either do a bibliography OR do in-text citations; you don't have to do both.

_____ 4. TRUE or FALSE: In a bibliography, if you give the URL and the date, that's enough—you don't have to do the author, title, etc. (OR you can do the author, title, etc. and skip the URL).

_____ 5. TRUE or FALSE: If you can't find an author, you focus on the title: in the bibliography you go by the first main word of the title, and in the parentheses of the in-text citation, you give a short, 'nick name' version of the title.

Dear parent/guardian,

I am asking that you indicate whether or not you give approval for you student to watch a portion of the movie Saving Private Ryan. This is a 1998 Stephen Spielberg, with Tom Hanks, about the D-Day landing of World War II. The movie has an R rating, because it was trying to be very realistic in depicting the wounds and violence of a WW2 battlefield.

For more information about the movie: <https://www.imdb.com/title/tt0120815/>

But here is a brief description of the movie's starting point/plot.

Storyline

Opening with the Allied invasion of Normandy on 6 June 1944, members of the 2nd Ranger Battalion under Cpt. Miller fight ashore to secure a beachhead. Amidst the fighting, two brothers are killed in action. Earlier in New Guinea, a third brother is KIA. Their mother, Mrs. Ryan, is to receive all three of the grave telegrams on the same day. The United States Army Chief of Staff, George C. Marshall, is given an opportunity to alleviate some of her grief when he learns of a fourth brother, Private James Ryan, and decides to send out 8 men (Cpt. Miller and select members from 2nd Rangers) to find him and bring him back home to his mother...Written by J.Zelman

We will not be watching the whole movie, just the 22 minutes or so that show the D-Day landing.

Because it is an R rated movie, your student can't watch it in class without a signed permission slip from their parent/guardian.

If you don't want them to watch it, I will have an alternative activity for them during the time that we watch the movie.

Thanks very much for your input and please let me know if you have questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Steve Hathaway
