

FUNNY BIZARRE AMAZING CUTE INTRIGUING

HOME | ABOUT | CONTACT | WRITE FOR US

Search

HOME SCIENCE & NATURE ENTERTAINMENT FOOD & DRINK SOCIETY ANIMALS HISTORY TECH

Realistically colorized historical photos make the past seem incredibly real [36 pictures]

NOVEMBER 6, 2013 | BY ABRAHAM | 319 COMMENTS

Over the last couple years, an increasingly popular trend online has been to create and share colorized photos from history. Artists such as Jordan Lloyd, Dana Keller and Sanna Dullaway take intriguing old black-and-white photos and bring them to life with color as if they'd been taken only yesterday.

Here are some examples...

Unemployed Lumber Worker and His Wife, circa 1939

Testing the Hydrogen Bomb

GET THE BEST OF 22 WORDS IN YOUR INBOX:

Email Address

Sign Up

RECENT COMMENTS

John on U.S. congressman threatens to kill reporter, maintains that's an appropriate response to being annoyed

Nothing biased or sarcastic about your reporting or my comment, of course. Both the journalist and congressman were out ...

Charlie Countryman Telecharger on [Bear startles babysitter and kid by breaking into enclosed porch and taking a nap \[pics & video\]](#)

Excellent way of telling, and pleasant piece of writing to take data about my presentation focus, which i am going to de...

Mama C on [When snowfall hits Birmingham the results are disastrous \[14 pictures\]](#)

Funny. I'd noticed that here in the north as well. Except ours are always blue. ;)

Tristan on [When snowfall hits Birmingham the results are disastrous \[14 pictures\]](#)

This is a joke right? In Edmonton, AB, Canada where I live, the roads get packed with snow and ice and it's only after a...

So Cold on When snowfall hits Birmingham the results are disastrous [14 pictures]

*weather

Older »

London, 1945

Hindenburg Disaster, 1937

Japanese Archers, circa 1860

View from the Capitol in Nashville, 1864

Audrey Hepburn

Albert Einstein in Long Island, 1939

Nazi Minister of Propaganda Joseph Goebbels scowls at a Jewish photographer, 1933

Baltimore Slums, 1938

British Troops Board Their Train for the Front, 1939

Oscar II, King of Sweden and Norway, 1880

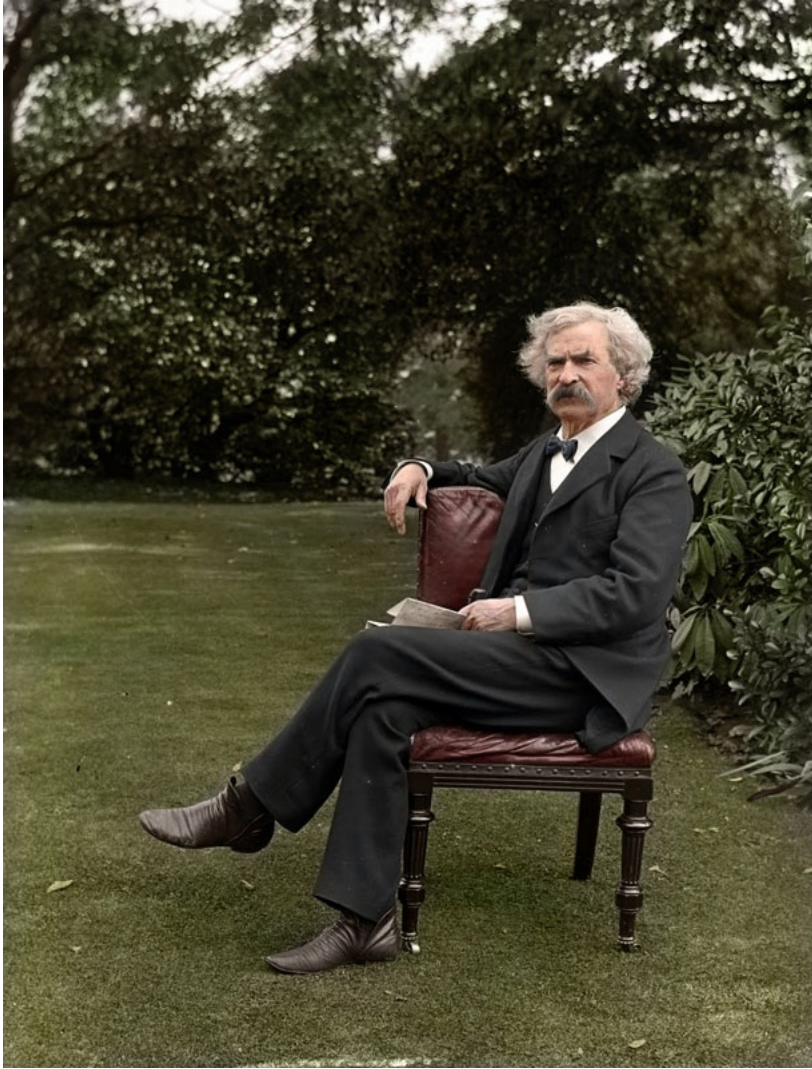

Walt Whitman, 1887

Colored by Dana Keller

Mark Twain, circa 1900

Charlie Chaplin, 1916

Elizabeth Taylor, 1956

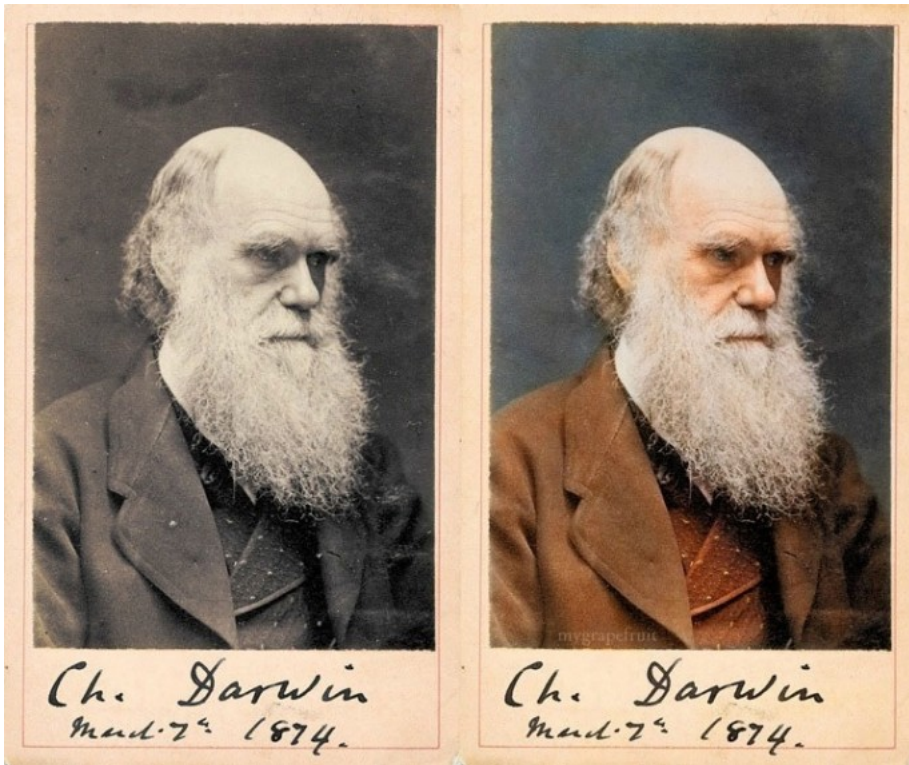

Country store, 1939

Washington D. C., 1921

Charles Darwin, 1874

Abraham Lincoln, 1865

Theodore Roosevelt

Louisville, Kentucky, 1937

Tweet

Star

531 points

Use left/right keys to browse

< OLDER

NEWER >

Big Jay McNeely, Olympic Auditorium, 1953

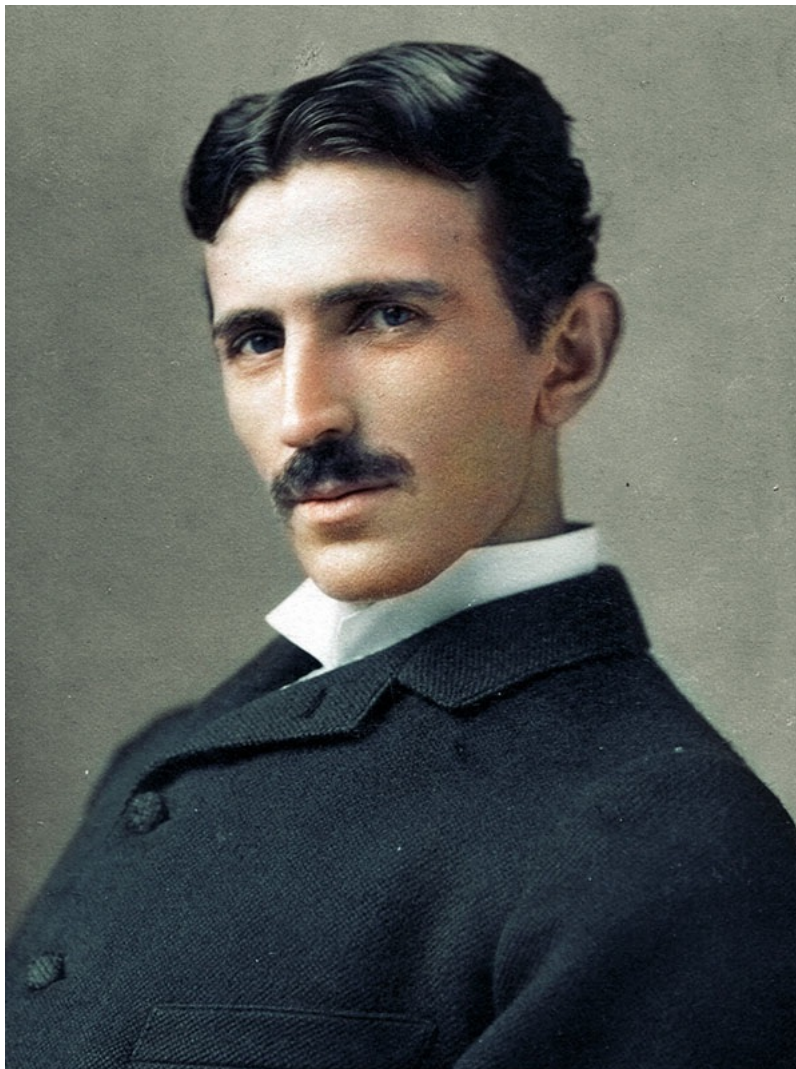

Thich Quang Duc's self-immolation, 1963

Anne Frank, 1942

Nicola Tesla

Kissing the War Goodbye, 1945

For more colorized photos, visit Dynamichrome, Past in Colour, History in Color, the popular subreddit Colorized History, or (in book form) Colorized Photographs

(via imgur)

Share on Facebook

Share on Twitter

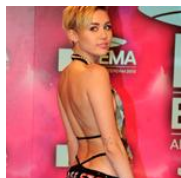

PREVIOUS
Passengers' mad rush to get on a Venezuelan train

NEXT
The heartwarming story of two best friends who had never met in person

You can also use your left/right keys to browse 22 Words.

FROM THE WEB

The Most Scandalous Red Carpet Dresses of 2013

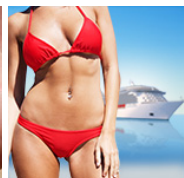

17 Things You Never Knew About "The Hunger Games"

Don't know Spanish? See this video (Shocking)

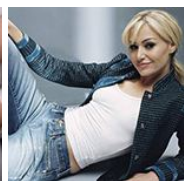

New Testosterone Booster Takes GNC By Storm

How Cruise Ships Fill Their Unsold Cabins

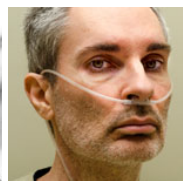

If you don't speak Spanish, watch this video now

Gay Stars: Who Knew?

33 Celebrities Who Have Killed People

5 Warning Signs That Cancer Is Starting in Your Body

10 Celebs and Their Horror Movie Doppelgangers

LIKE 22 WORDS ON FACEBOOK